Simple Twist of Fate  Bob Dylan  1  arr. © McNie 2015
They sat together in the park
As the evening sky grew dark,
She looked at him and he felt a spark tingle to his bones. ‘Twas then he felt alone, and wished that he’d gone straight, and watched out for a simple twist of fate.

Simple Twist of Fate
They walked along by the old canal, a little confused, I remember well And stopped into a strange hotel with a neon burnin' bright. He felt the heat of the night hit him like a freight train moving with a simple twist of fate.

Simple Twist of Fate 4
He woke up, the room was bare.

He didn't see her anywhere. He told himself he didn't care, pushed the window open wide, felt an emptiness inside, to which he just could not relate. Brought on by a simple twist of fate.

Simple Twist of Fate
He hears the ticking of the clocks, and walks along with a parrot that talks, Hunts her down by the waterfront docks where the sailors all come in. Maybe she'll pick him out again, how long must he wait? Once more for a simple twist of fate.
People tell me it's a sin, to know and feel too much within. I still believe she was my twin, but I lost the ring.

She was born in spring, but I was born too late.

Blame it on a simple twist of fate.
